Re: Grisel Martin Letter of Recommendation

Dear Human Resources Director or Representative:

It is with pleasure that I recommend Ms. Grisel Martín as a valuable professional graphic designer for your consideration. As a Chief Business Development Officer, I have learned over the years that precision, creativity, and time management are the key fundamentals for any graphic design project, which Grisel highly display and surpasses. I was immensely pleased with her level of talent, her diligent efforts and her willingness to work on any project.

I know Grisel for over 4 years, within that time frame we have worked on numerous project internally (Company Effort) and for our company's clients as a freelancer. Our clients have been impressed with her range of knowledge, her ability to meet tight deadlines and the excellent quality of her work. Evaluating her work and dedication, Grisel has established herself as a talented senior designer, taking on projects that require both high levels of creativity and technical skills and frequently working under very tight deadlines. Grisel is proficient on all the latest versions of the most cutting-edge design software and is always eager to learn new skills. Along with her creative abilities and technical skills, she has a talent for marketing as well, which is a skill that a graphic designer should be acquainted with.

Future employers should feel confident that their requests and communications will be addressed in a timely manner and with consistent quality as Grisel has shown proven commitment to the work at our organization exceeding our expectations. In my view, Grisel is a good logical choice to your vacant position or as a freelancer. Please feel free to contact me if any question and thank you for taking the time with this matter. Have a great day.

Best Regards

Richard Rivera
